PRINTING AND PHOTOGRAPHY DIVISION, OL

Title:

Quality Circle Program

Goal:

To improve the Division's quality of worklife

by:

promoting team building and communications increasing employee involvement in identification and resolution of work related problems

- increase employee job satisfaction

- improve product quality and reduce errors

Objective:

P&PD/OL will initiate a pilot Quality Circle Program to determine the efficiency of this participatory management philosophy in the operational environment found in P&PD.

Benefit:

Successful completion of this objective will create a work environment that will maximize the utilization of the creativity of all employees. It will increase employee motivation by reinforcing a sense of unity of purpose and teamwork.

Environment:

The success of the objective is contingent on the cooperation and support of all management levels in the Division, the development of accurate performance measurement tools, and the active and continuing involvement of the Division Steering Committee and Facilitators. The cost of the milot program is estimated at

STAT STAT

Performance Measurement:

The successful completion of this objective will be measured by an improvement in employee morale and motivation, evidenced in a follow-up survey; by a decrease in absenteeism among circle members, and by an increase in quality and productivity.
